Interview Guide

You can get a great deal of valuable information about the world of work from people employed in various occupations. To identify employed individuals who may be able to supply you with current, comprehensive career information, begin with those persons most easily accessible to you; your family, friends, co-workers, school, and other resources.

REMEMBER:

You are not asking for a job.
You have the right and the responsibility to yourself to seek information from those who can help you.
Prepare yourself for the information interview by learning as much as you can about the field and the person you will be interviewing.
Prepare a list of questions you want to ask
Be prepared to take notes during the interview.
Express interest and appreciation.

Who did you interview?
Where do they work?
What is his/her career?
